For some years, the J C Madigan Reserve has been fenced off because of contamination and subsidence resulting from its chequered history. It's been an oil storage tank for the Navy, a tip for solid waste and a recreation area honouring Councillor Jack Madigan.

And now, a local newspaper has labelled the land "a black hole" which would make Jack Madigan turn in his grave!

Join us on GLOBAL EARTH EXCHANGE DAY, to turn the spotlight on this damaged land.
